The school provides free education to 200 children from the most disadvantaged and poorest families. We greatly hope that the first in history and our organisation playground is going to provide worry free and peaceful time for the children longing for peace. South Sudan is constantly suffering ethnic violence and growing poverty. The civil war, which started in 2013 finished only in February this year.

Covid – 19 interrupted implementation planned projects in Papua New Guinea and South Africa.

This year our pencils reached Australia, Iceland, Mexico and New Zealand.
